

Nomination for the Commonwealth Award

The Commonwealth Award recognizes other societies or organizations within Virginia for performing outstanding service in the promotion of genealogical study. Achievements in this area would include preserving local records, improving genealogical education through special projects, maintaining a genealogical research library, producing high-quality publications, and compiling widely accessible electronic databases.

Nominee: _____

Email: _____

Telephone: _____

Address: _____

Nominator: _____

Email _____

Telephone: _____

Address: _____

Justification and Citation Data

List specific examples which justify this award.

Achievement #1. _____

Achievement #2. _____

Achievement #3. _____

Proposed Citation

On a separate sheet, in 100 words or less, submit a citation that highlights the significance of this nominee's achievements.

Please return this form and related information no later than February 1, to: awards@vgs.org
If you prefer to send by postal mail, please use the mailing address below.

Virginia Genealogical Society
PO Box 626
Orange, VA 22960

<http://www.vgs.org>