Research Facility

The Northern Neck of Virginia Historical Society (NNVHS) library is located on the first floor of the Society's headquarters at 15825 Kings Highway, Montross, Virginia.

NNVHS Mission

Virginia's Northern Neck, home to many of America's Founding Fathers and birthplace of 3 of the nation's first 5 presidents, has been called the cradle of American democracy.

The mission of the Northern Neck of Virginia Historical Society (NNVHS) is to collect, preserve, and disseminate information and material of every nature relating to the history, antiquities, and literature of the counties of Northumberland, Lancaster, Westmoreland, Stafford, Richmond and King George.

Be Prepared

The library research fee is free for NNVHS members; $5 daily for non-members. Copies are 25¢ each.

Holdings

The Society's library collection includes print and nonprint materials on the history and genealogy of Virginia's Northern Neck.

Collections

The NNVHS library collection includes vital records, family histories, church and cemetery guides, military records, immigration lists and census records, and histories of Virginia and Northern Neck towns and counties.

Publications for sale
